The Mitchelstown Forum has teamed up with Cork County Council and the Indiependence Music & Arts Festival to launch a new initiative aimed at supporting young musicians and providing a stage for them during one of Ireland's most popular music festivals.

The Mitchelstown Music Trail will see musicians performing on Saturday July 30th and Sunday July 31st, availing of the huge audiences that Indiependence brings to the town each summer.

Take part in this year's music trail and be in with a chance to win €300! All you have to do is collect three stamps from local businesses, fill in your details and drop your slip in one of our competition boxes in the town or back at the festival site.
